Motion Carried 5/0

Resolution: 0920-01

Attendance: Department Housing

Michelle Chandler and Maree Tysoe from Department of Housing entered the meeting at 10:00am.

Department of Housing representatives gave an overview regarding how the department allocates Social Housing in Woorabinda.

The following matters are considered in determining applications for housing:

- The applicant's circumstances, needs and goals
- Assessment of the applicant situation in relation to the government's priority groups.
- Eligibility for housing assistance
- The availability of the type of housing requested by the applicant

The applicant's eligibility for social housing is determined after the entire application process is completed and a full assessment and consideration of the applicant's broader circumstances and needs has occurred.

Consideration is also given to the Qld Human Rights Act 2019 when allocation of housing.

General discussion was held regarding allocation of housing to people returning to Woorabinda after extended periods away from community.

Department of Housing representatives left the meeting at 11:05am.

Item 8.2.1: CEO Report

RESOLVED:

That Council receive the Chief Executive Officers Report and that those matters not covered by resolution be noted.

Moved: Cr Joshua Weazel

Seconded: Cr Gerry Doyle

Carried: 5/0

Resolution: 0920-03

Item 8.2.2: Disposal Front End Loader

Obsolete Council front-end loader has been parked up at the Sewerage Treatment Plant since being replaced over 4 years ago.

The machine is obsolete and there is not enough work in councils works program to justify the cost to repairing the old loader.

Council has recently received enquiries regarding the purchasing the old Loader.

RESOLVED:

That Council advertise the old front-end loader for sale.

Moved: Cr Laurence Weazel

Seconded: Cr Dellas Walker

Carried: 5/0

Resolution: 0920-04

Item 8.2.3: Fencing – 195 Carbine Street

Council owns a set of units located at 195 Carbine Street, Woorabinda. The property is currently not fenced.

A complaint has been received from one of the tenants regarding children trespassing on the property and teenagers sitting on the stairs at night.

Children are also helping themselves to the tenant's taps to water their horses at the unit.

The tenant has requested that consideration be given to erecting a fence around the property to deter illegal trespass on the property.

RESOLVED:

That provision be made in the 2020/21 budget to install a metal fence around council residence at 195 Carbine Street.

Moved: Cr Joshua Weazel

Seconded: Cr Joel Cameron

Carried: 5/0

Resolution: 0920-05

Action 171 Make provision for fencing in 2020/2021 draft budget – 195 Carbine Street

Item 8.2.5: Service Station Signage

Council staff have reported that some residents are parking their cars in the service station while they go to the shop and/or post office. This practice is blocking access to the fuel bowsers for those residents wishing to fuel up their motor vehicles.

The Works Manager has suggested erecting No Parking signage in order to deter the current practice.

RESOLVED:

That Council erect No Parking signs at the Woorabinda Service Station to prohibit people parking in the pump areas while not getting fuel during advertised operating hours.

Moved: Cr Dellas Walker

Seconded: Cr Joel Cameron

Carried: 5/0

Resolution: 0920-06

Action 172 Order and install No Parking signs at the Woorabinda Service Station.

Priority Route Maps

Correspondence has been received from the Department Transport and Main Roads seeking council's endorsement of the Woorabinda Aboriginal Shire Council (WASC) Priority Route Maps.

The Priority Route Maps guide state and local government investment to deliver the principal cycle network.

RESOLVED:

That Council endorse the Woorabinda Aboriginal Shire (WASC) Priority Route Maps subject to the extension of Priority A in Munns Drive from Blair Street to the Northern Grid

Moved: Cr Joshua Weazel

Seconded: Cr Gerry Doyle
